What a cluster is: real MMP-9-panel windows (LasB) grouped by Hamming distance

A Comparing two real LasB windows, position by position

B The same windows as a graph: an edge means Hamming distance ≤ 2

Windows sharing a shaded region are one cluster and always stay together in the same fold, however indirectly they are linked.